

Client Obligations

The College reserves the right to judge acceptable levels of noise or behaviour of the Client, its guests, representatives or contractors (including, but not limited to, persons engaged by the Client to provide entertainment or other services). If the Client is unable to remedy to the College's satisfaction any aspect of poor behaviour or activities unacceptable to the College, the College reserves the right to terminate the Client's event. Should this occur no monies will be refunded. The College's decision is final.

- a. It is the responsibility of the Client to ensure that these important conditions are explained in detail, in advance of arrival, to all groups and in particular to adults accompanying minors.

The Client shall be responsible to the College for any damage caused to the allocated rooms or the furnishings, utensils and equipment therein or to the College generally by any act, default or neglect of the Client or any contractor, sub-contractor, employee or guest of the Client and shall pay to the College on demand the amount required to make good or remedy any such damage.

- n. You are welcome to arrange a press release either pre or post event, but please be careful to mention that the event is being 'held' at the College rather than 'hosted by' the College. If you would like to invite press into the College during your event you will need to contact your events manager to ask permission in advance.

Where the Client fails to remove these materials, the College shall be entitled to remove any such materials remaining at the end of the hire period and the Client shall indemnify the College in respect of the cost. The College does not accept responsibility or liability whatsoever for any goods or property of any person left at the premises after the end of the event.
